During the second semester of this school year, a dozen elementary and middle schools in Radiant Electric's service area sent backpacks of food home with about 400 students every Friday afternoon.

For most of these children, the food (provided by the Kansas Food Bank) made up the difference between having enough to eat on Saturdays and Sundays—or not. For some, it may have been all they had to eat on the weekend. And for all, it meant returning to school on Monday morning ready to listen, think and learn—just like everyone else.

And for all who live and work in the Radiant service area, a stronger more secure Backpack program means a lower dropout rate and a higher graduation rate among our most vulnerable and needful school children. Over time, it also enhances our economic development efforts. And that is good for us all.

The Radiant Electric Board endorses the QUARTER QUEST PLAN to add funding to support the work of the Kansas Food Bank. Each Radiant member is encouraged to check off authorization for a quarter (or more) to be added to their monthly electric service bill. Check "Yes." It's the right thing to do.
